

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary (no equal time required}the danger of allowing control of the public airwaves to be vested in the hands corporate bias.

The guidelines set forth in the Blue Book should be reactivated regarding control of media outlet ownership, the Fairness Doctrine needs to be re-examined, and more specific guidelines reimplemented regarding programming standards. The profit motive cannot determine content. Our children's future cannot be entrusted to a few media mongrels

My research focuses on the actions of the FCC regarding programming standards since 1927. Under both Democratic and Republican administrations, the FCC is currently failing the public interest, welfare, and necessity.
